WHAT HAPPENED

Mausner Group Injury Lawyers dropped from position #12 to #19 over the scan period, a loss of 7 positions in local search visibility for personal injury attorney queries in Miami. Over the past 17.9 weeks, the profile has fluctuated between #8 and #19, with the worst position recorded at #19 in the current scan. Meanwhile, Law Offices Of Jose M. Francisco moved to #3 and gained 43 reviews during the measurement period, while competitors Suarez And Montero and Bernstein & Maryanoff each added 4 new reviews this week alone.

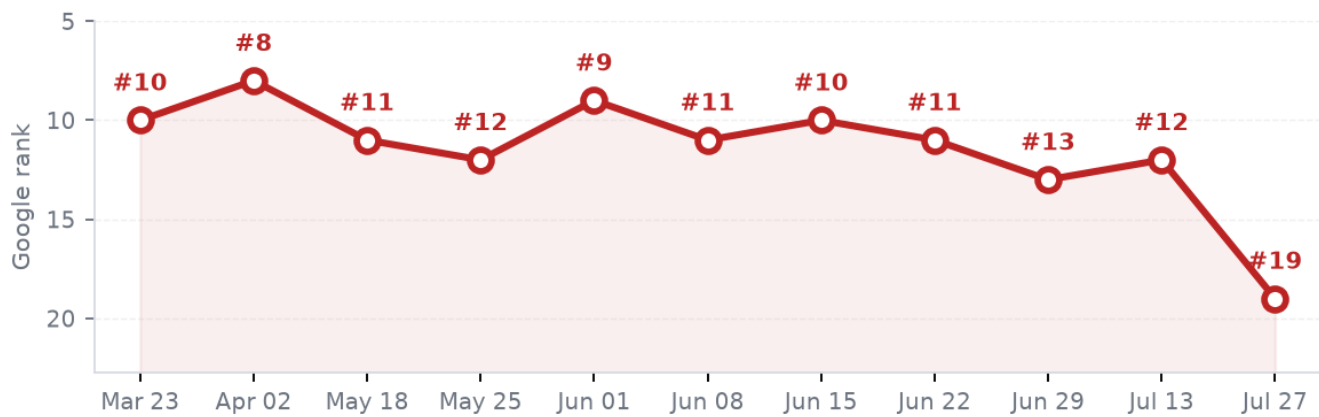

WHY YOU SLIPPED

- [HIGH CONFIDENCE] Review velocity is negative at -1.01 reviews per week over 17.9 weeks, totaling -18 reviews lost or forgone. No new reviews were detected this week, while three competitors above your rank posted new reviews in that same timeframe. Google's local algorithm favors businesses with consistent review activity, and your profile is showing the opposite trend.
- [HIGH CONFIDENCE] Law Offices Of Jose M. Francisco gained 43 reviews and climbed 12 positions to rank #3, directly displacing your visibility. This competitor's growth rate far exceeds yours, suggesting they are capturing searcher attention and client feedback that could otherwise reach your profile.
- [MEDIUM CONFIDENCE] Your rank has been declining over the last 6 weeks, moving from #9 to #13, #12, and now #19. This directional pattern suggests momentum is working against you, not toward recovery.

YOUR STANDING

Confidence score is 10/10, meaning this data is complete and reliable. The rank drop from #12 to #19 is a sustained downward movement, not noise--your position has worsened measurably and is likely to persist without intervention. Review velocity is the most actionable lever available to reverse this trend.
