- [MEDIUM CONFIDENCE] Your review count (29 total) sits below the market average of 116 reviews per competitor. You rank in the 55th percentile by review volume, meaning roughly half the market has accumulated more social proof than you have.

YOUR STANDING

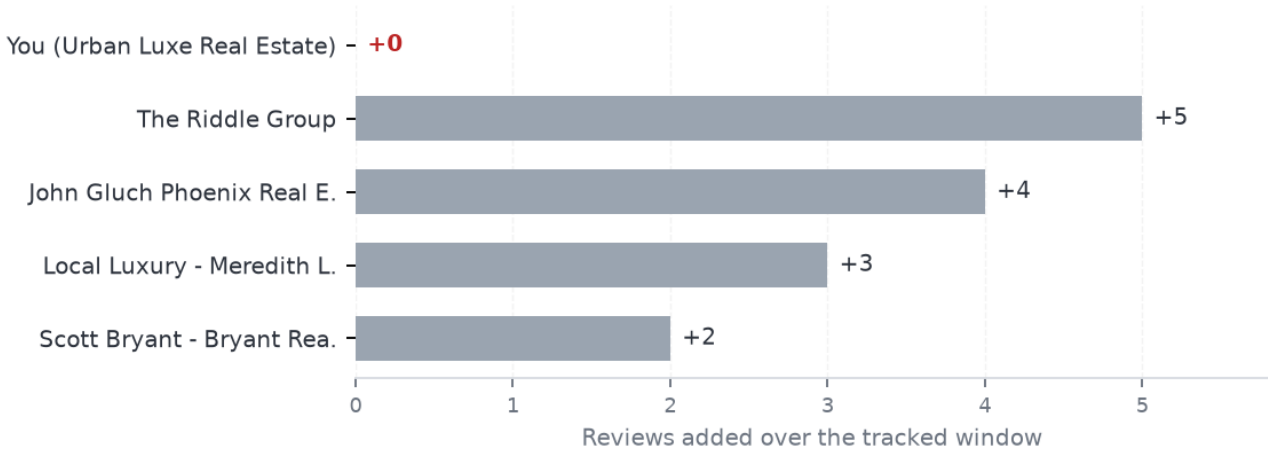

Confidence score is 10/10, indicating our data is complete and the rank drop is supported by reliable measurements. This confidence level means the 6-position decline is real and the underlying signals (stalled reviews, incomplete profile data, competitor gains) are sustained factors worth addressing now rather than waiting.
