WHAT HAPPENED

Philly Injury Attorneys dropped from position #9 to #16 over the scan period -- a 7-position decline in the local pack. During the same 10-week measurement window, competitors gained meaningful review velocity: TopDog Law Personal Injury Lawyers added 5 new reviews, Wapner Newman added 2, and Zavodnick & Lasky added 1, while your profile recorded 0 new reviews this week.

WHY YOU SLIPPED

- [HIGH CONFIDENCE] Competitors gained active review momentum while you did not. TopDog Law's 5 new reviews this week and overall 73-review gain (now 690 total) demonstrates sustained client feedback generation. Google's local algorithm favors actively reviewed businesses, and the data suggests your lack of new reviews this week is a contributing factor to rank decline.
- [HIGH CONFIDENCE] Your review velocity is slow relative to market growth. Over 14 weeks you gained 7 reviews (0.5 per week), placing you in the 70th percentile by volume. The category leader holds 842 reviews; the fastest-climbing competitor gained 73 reviews. This rate lag likely contributes to rank volatility.
- [MEDIUM CONFIDENCE] Rank volatility over 8 scans (positions ranging #9 to #17) suggests algorithm sensitivity to weekly signals. Your best rank was #9; worst was #17. The current #16 position falls within this volatile range, indicating your listing may be borderline for top-10 placement and responsive to small signal changes.

YOUR STANDING

Confidence score is 10/10, meaning this data is complete and reliable. The 7-position drop is a measured fact, not noise. You should treat this as a genuine ranking shift and prioritize the quick wins above.

YOUR RANKING TREND (14 WEEKS)

Your rank is swinging week to week, a sign Google is re-testing you against rivals. Consistent profile activity stabilises it.

THE REVIEW RACE -- WHO'S PULLING AHEAD

DO THIS NEXT

1. Implement a structured post-case review request process for clients, targeting 2-3 reviews per week. Why now: You are generating 0.5 reviews per week while competitors like TopDog Law are generating 5+ weekly. A moderate increase to 2-3 per week would narrow the competitive gap and reduce algorithm volatility. Effort: Medium. Expected impact: High.
2. Audit your Google Business Profile for completeness (photos, service area, FAQs, posts). Why now: With 351 reviews already in place, optimization of profile content and regular posting can improve local pack click-through rate. You currently capture ~0.8% of clicks; top-3 listings capture ~70.3%. Effort: Low. Expected impact: Medium.
