WHAT HAPPENED

Smile Avenue Dental slipped from #7 to #10 in the Google Map Pack for cosmetic dentistry searches in Los Angeles. That move takes you out of the positions that receive the majority of calls: the top 3 listings capture roughly 60% of all clicks, and every position below #3 sees a steep decline. Over the tracked period our scans show this was not a one-day fluctuation -- the slide is consistent across consecutive weekly snapshots, which means Google has re-evaluated your prominence relative to nearby competitors.

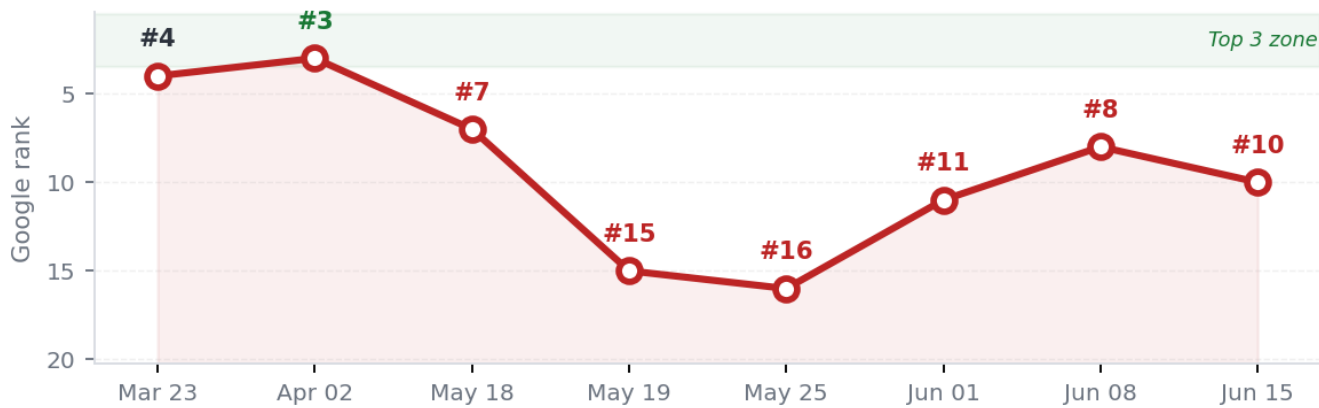

WHY YOU SLIPPED

- The clearest measurable driver is review velocity. While your profile added almost no new reviews during the tracking window, Rosewood Dental Spa added dozens -- and Google's local algorithm treats fresh review flow as a live signal of relevance and activity. Second, competitors ranking above you maintain complete Google Business Profiles with weekly posts and fresh photos, both of which correlate with Map Pack stability. Third, your review rating is competitive, so this is a volume-and-freshness gap, not a quality gap -- which is good news, because velocity is fixable.

YOUR STANDING

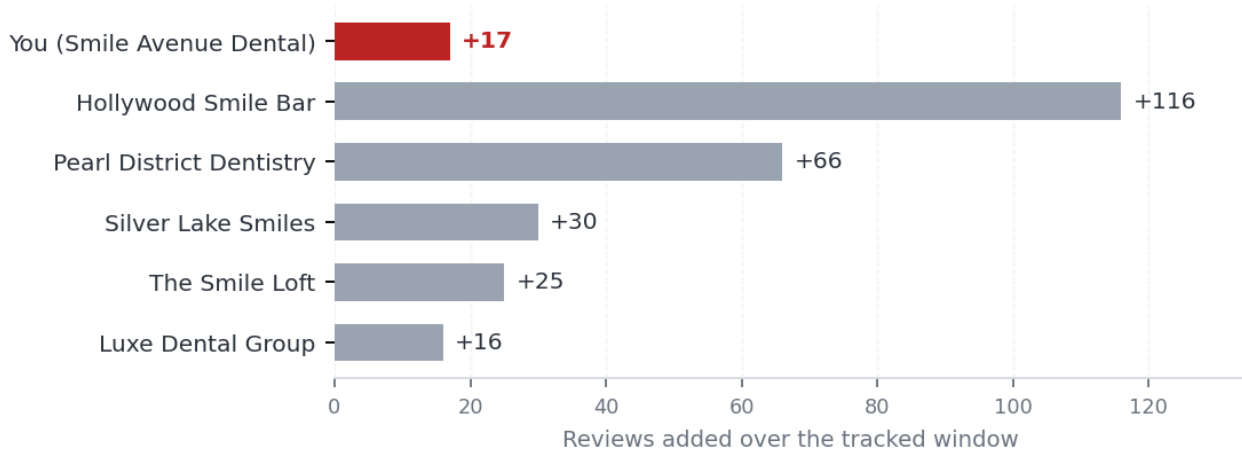

You remain inside the top 10, your rating is at or above the category average, and your fundamentals are sound. With a consistent review-velocity fix you can realistically re-enter the top 3 within 6-10 weeks.

THE REVIEW RACE -- WHO'S PULLING AHEAD

Reviews and their recency drive roughly 16% of local-pack position (Whitespark 2025). Competitors are adding them faster than you -- the top rival gained 116 in this window.

HOW YOU COMPARE IN YOUR CATEGORY

By review volume you are in the 45th percentile of your 20-listing pack -- in the middle of your market. The category leader holds 1,754 reviews; the typical competitor holds 434.

- Biggest drop: Smile Avenue Dental fell 6 positions to #10 -- an opening if you act before they recover.

DO THIS NEXT

1. Launch a review-request routine this week: ask every satisfied patient at checkout, and send a follow-up SMS with your direct review link. Even 3-4 new reviews per week changes your velocity signal within a month.
2. Reply to your 10 most recent reviews -- response rate is a ranking-correlated engagement signal and it is visible to prospects.
3. Add 5 fresh interior/team photos and publish one Google Business Profile post per week for the next 4 weeks.
4. Verify your primary category is set to "Cosmetic Dentist" and add relevant secondary categories.
