WHAT HAPPENED

Our scan on June 18, 2026 recorded Prolotherapy SF at position #15, down from #6 in the prior period -- a 9-position drop. The business maintains a perfect 5.0-star rating across 7 reviews, which is a positive signal, though the review volume is limited for a regenerative medicine practice in a competitive market.

WHY YOU SLIPPED

- [LOW CONFIDENCE] Insufficient data to identify root causes. Our scan detected the rank drop as a fact, but the 2-week observation window and limited competitor signal data prevent us from determining whether this reflects algorithm volatility, competitive activity, or changes to your own profile signals.

DO THIS NEXT

1. Audit your Google Business Profile for any incomplete or recently changed information (service areas, hours, business description). Why now: Complete profiles tend to rank more consistently; incomplete ones are prone to volatility. Effort: Low. Expected impact: Medium.
2. Request reviews from recent patients, targeting 2-3 new reviews over the next 2 weeks. Why now: Your 7-review total is modest; regenerative medicine practices with 15+ recent reviews likely have ranking advantage. Effort: Medium. Expected impact: Medium.
