WHY YOU SLIPPED

- [HIGH CONFIDENCE] Lovejoy Dental gained 59 reviews over the scan period while your profile gained 9 total reviews over 14 weeks, creating a significant review volume gap. Lovejoy now holds 781 reviews to your 674, and ranks at #4 versus your #20.

YOUR STANDING

Confidence score is 10/10 based on data completeness. This means the 14-position drop is a reliable finding and not an artifact of incomplete data. The sustained decline from #6 to #20 over 14 weeks, combined with stalled review velocity, indicates a real competitive positioning loss that requires action.

Your Recovery Plan

October 29, 2026

DO THIS NEXT

1. Implement a post-appointment review request system for cosmetic dentistry patients, targeting 2-3 reviews per week. Why now: your review velocity at 0.64/week lags behind competitors who are capturing 5-12 reviews weekly. At this rate, you will continue losing ground in local ranking. Effort: Low. Expected impact: High.
2. Analyze top-performing reviews at competitors like Lovejoy Dental and Bling Dental (926 reviews) to identify service or patient communication elements that drive positive feedback. Why now: your rating of 4.9 stars matches market average, but review volume is your constraint, not quality. Cosmetic dentistry patients likely have specific triggers for leaving reviews. Effort: Medium. Expected impact: Medium.
