WHAT HAPPENED

Center For Traditional Medicine fell from position #7 to position #19 on October 15, 2026, a drop of 12 positions. During the same scan period, three competitors above you gained new reviews (NW Regen +3, Northwest Center for Regenerative Medicine +1, FoRM Health +1) while your business recorded zero new reviews. Your profile holds only 3 total reviews compared to the category average of 57 reviews.

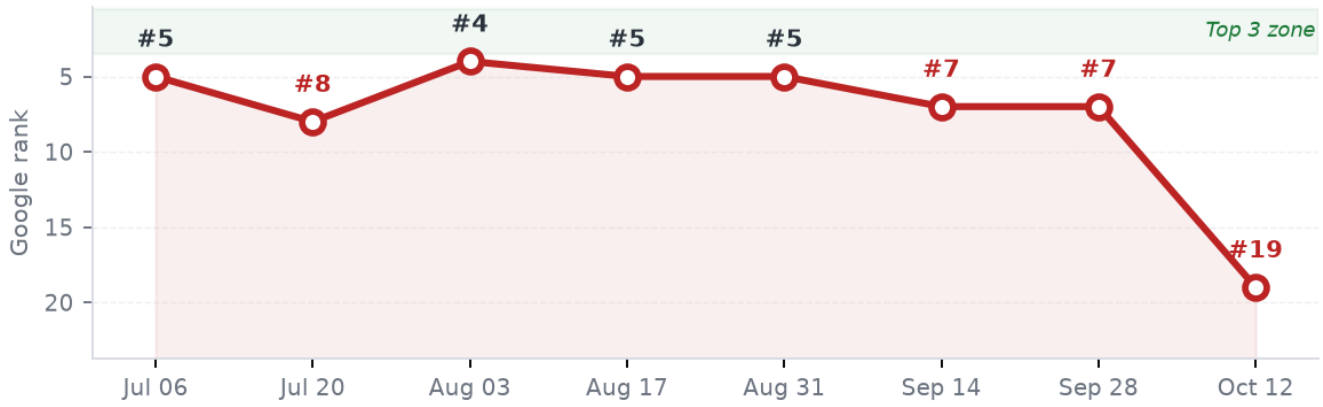

WHY YOU SLIPPED

- [HIGH CONFIDENCE] Review stagnation over 14 weeks: your profile gained 0 reviews while measuring 0.0 reviews per week. TPC Regenerative Health, now ranked #4, gained 2 reviews in the scan period and climbed 9 positions. The data suggests Google's local algorithm rewards active review velocity, and your complete absence of new reviews likely correlates with your rank decline.
- [HIGH CONFIDENCE] Severe review volume deficit: you hold 3 reviews versus the category median of 69 reviews and the category leader's 325 reviews. You rank in the 10th percentile by review volume. The top 5 local pack listings range from 30 to 155 reviews; your profile is a statistical outlier below the competitive threshold.
- [MEDIUM CONFIDENCE] Rating gap below market standard: your 3.7-star rating trails the category average of 4.74 stars. Seventeen competitors above you hold higher ratings. Combined with minimal review count, this places your profile in a weak position for local relevance signals.
- [MEDIUM CONFIDENCE] Rank decline trend over 14 weeks: your positions moved #5 > #8 > #4 > #5 > #5 > #7 > #7 > #19. After hovering between #4 and #7 for six weeks, you fell sharply to #19 in the final scan. The pattern suggests a tipping point may have occurred once competitors accumulated sufficient review momentum.

YOUR STANDING

This scan has a confidence score of 10/10 based on complete data capture across 8 weeks. The ranking drop is sustained and real. Your next action should be initiating a review generation program immediately, as the 12-position fall is unlikely to reverse without addressing the review velocity gap.

DO THIS NEXT

1. Implement a systematic patient review request process targeting post-visit follow-ups via email or SMS. Why now: Open Wellness PDX gained 51 reviews (now 325 total, ranked #14); their velocity is outpacing yours by an enormous margin, and even gaining 5-10 reviews monthly would move your needle against competitors currently gaining 1-3 reviews per scan period. Engagement with existing reviews signals business activity to likely algorithm. Effort: Low. Expected impact: Medium.
3. Prioritize Regenerative Medicine service page optimization and local keyword targeting for Portland, OR, since your visibility is 87.9x lower than top-3 listings. Why now: at rank #19 you capture approximately 0.8% of clicks versus 70.3% for the top 3. Effort: Medium. Expected impact: Medium (cannot recover lost rank without address reviews first).
